I hereby declare under penalty of perjury, that I have reviewed the information included in this form, its attachments, and accompanying documents and that the same is true, correct, and complete. I am aware that Article 269 of Act No. 146-2012, as amended, known as the "Puerto Rico Penal Code," provides that: "every person who under oath or affirmation, testifies, declares, deposes, or certifies truly before any competent court, body, official, or person, and states as true any material or important fact without being certain that it is true, shall be guilty of perjury and punished by imprisonment for a fixed term of three (3) years. If the convicted person is a juridical person, it shall be punished by a fine of up to ten thousand dollars ($10,000). Moreover, under the circumstances set forth in the previous paragraph, any person who offers two or more conflicting testimonies, declarations, depositions, or certifications shall be guilty of perjury. In this case, it shall not be necessary to establish the truth or falsehood of the stated facts.
