Dear Mr. Echevarria:

Re: PREPA Consent to Assignment and Assumption Agreement

Reference is made to (i) the Power Purchase and Operating Agreement dated June 10, 2026 (PPOA), entered into by and among Power Expectations, LLC, Reyes Contractor Group, Inc., Enchanted Rock, LLC, and the Puerto Rico Electric Power Authority (PREPA); (ii) Power Expectations, LLC's letter dated July 29, 2026, requesting PREPA's written consent to the reassignment of Enchanted Rock, LLC's contractual role and associated responsibilities to Flotek Industries, Inc. (Flotek); and (iii) the Assignment and Assumption Agreement submitted with that request (Assignment Agreement). Capitalized terms not defined in this letter have the meanings assigned to them in the PPOA.

Following the Third-Party Procurement Office's (3PPO) evaluation of the proposed assignment and PREPA's receipt of its favorable recommendation, and upon completion of PREPA's review of the proposed transaction, PREPA hereby grants its written consent, pursuant to Article XVI of the PPOA, to the assignment contemplated by the Assignment Agreement, whereby Flotek will assume Enchanted Rock, LLC's contractual role and the associated rights, duties, obligations, liabilities, deliverables, warranties, and performance requirements under the PPOA.

PREPA's consent is limited exclusively to the assignment described in the Assignment Agreement as submitted to PREPA. This consent is granted in reliance upon the representations and commitments made in the July 29, 2026 request, the Assignment Agreement, the materials furnished during the 3PPO evaluation, and the due diligence process, including that the assignment will not modify the Project's approved scope, generation capacity, Contract Price, schedule, technical requirements, guarantees, warranties, or any other material term of the PPOA; will not increase PREPA's financial or other obligations; and will not relieve Power Expectations, LLC or Reyes Contractor Group, Inc. of any obligation or liability under the PPOA.

As of the effectiveness of the assignment with respect to PREPA, Flotek shall be bound by and responsible for all provisions of the PPOA applicable to the role formerly held by Enchanted Rock, LLC, including all technical, operational, financial, insurance, bonding, safety, compliance, reporting, warranty, and performance obligations. This consent does not approve any amendment, modification, novation, waiver, or other change to the PPOA, except solely for the substitution expressly described above. It does not constitute approval of any further assignment or transfer and does not waive any past, present, or future default or any right, remedy, claim, defense, or contractual protection available to PREPA under the PPOA or applicable law.

Cordially,

Mary C. Zapata Acosta
Executive Director
